

Post-questions for HeartDown Expert Study

1. How different is writing in HeartDown from writing a paper or web page? *

I need to learn definition and formatting for HeartDown, because it's new to me

2. In what ways is it more difficult? *

Finding the correct grammar

3. In what ways is it easier? *

It gives indication of variable definition

4. Did you run into limitations? *

No

5. Are there things you wish it did? *

No

6. Do you have ideas for how to improve it? *

Make documentation better

7. How did you use the code it generated? *

To solve equations for finding minimum distance from several points to several line segments.

8. What risks and benefits do you see in the reading environment? *

It's good for debugging; but when there comes error and cannot show the reading environment, it will still show me the result of last trial, sometimes confuses me.